Cures Woman's Weaknesses.

We refer to that boon to weak, nervous, suffering women known as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

"A remedy which invariably acts as a uterine invigorator * * * makes for normal activity of the entire reproductive system." He continues "in Helonias we have a medicament which more fully answers the above purposes than any other drug with which I am acquainted. In the treatment of diseases peculiar to women. It is seldom that a case is seen which does not present some indication for this remedial agent." Dr. Fyfe further says: "The following are among the leading indications for Helonias (Unicorn root). Pain or aching in the back, with leucorrhœa; atonic (weak) conditions of the reproductive organs of women, mental depression and irritability, associated with chronic diseases of the reproductive organs of women; constant sensation of heat in the region of the kidneys; menorrhagia (flooding), due to a weakened condition of the reproductive system; amenorrhœa, suppressed or absent monthly period, chills from or accompanying an abnormal condition of the digestive organs and anæmic (thin blood) habit; dragging sensations in the extreme lower part of the abdomen."

If more or less of the above symptoms are present, no invalid woman can do better than take Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, one of the leading ingredients of which is Unicorn root, or Helonias, and the medical properties of which it most faithfully represents.

Of Golden Seal root, another prominent ingredient of "Favorite Prescription," Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Medical College, Chicago, says:

"It is an important remedy in disorders of the womb. In all catarrhal conditions * * * and general enfeeblement, it is useful."

Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati, says of Golden Seal root:

"In relation to its general effects on the system, there is no medicine in use about which there is such general unanimity of opinion. It is universally regarded as the tonic useful in all debilitated states."

Prof. R. Bartholow, M. D., of Jefferson Medical College, says of Golden Seal:

"Valuable in uterine hemorrhage, menorrhagia (flooding) and congestive dysmenorrhœa (painful menstruation)."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription faithfully represents all the above named ingredients and cures the diseases for which they are recommended.

Constipation

Baked sweet apples, with some people, bring prompt relief for Constipation. With others, coarse all-wheat bread will have the same effect. Nature undoubtedly has a vegetable remedy to relieve every ailment known to man, if physicians can but find Nature's way to health. And this is strikingly true with regard to Constipation.

The bark of a certain tree in California—Cascara Sagrada—offers a most excellent aid to this end. But, combined with Egyptian Senna, Slippery Elm Bark, Solid Extract of Prunes, etc., this same Cascara bark is given its greatest possible power to correct constipation. A toothsome Candy Tablet, called Lax-ets, is now made at the Dr. Shoop Laboratories, from this ingenuous and most effective prescription. Its effect on Constipation, Biliousness, Sour Stomach, Bad Breath, Sallow Complexion, etc., is indeed prompt and satisfying.

No griping, no unpleasant after effects are experienced, and Lax-ets are put up in beautiful lithographed metal boxes at 5 cents and 25 cents per box.

For something new, nice, economical and effective, try a box of

THE BIG PIER

In the presence of 25,000 persons and with the finest pyrotechnical display ever seen in that section of the country, the big government pier of the Jamestown Exposition, which cost $400,000, was formally dedicated Saturday evening. The ceremonies were brief, and following a concert by the Mexican band E. W. Gaylord, representing the Scofield Company, the contractors, turned over the structure to Major F. I. Wheeler, the government officer in charge of the construction. Major Wheeler, then, in a few words, turned the structure over to President Tucker, who accepted it on behalf of the Exposition Company.

With the band playing the "Star-spangled Banner," the lights of the Exposition were turned on slowly and with increasing power, until every building and the great pier were outlined in a blaze of light.

The invited guests were then conducted from the center arch, where the dedication ceremonies were held, to seats at the head of the basin, and all lights on the pier were extinguished.

After a slight delay three smoke bombs began the display of fireworks that lasted for more than an hour. There were rockets of every description, while one of the features were huge set pieces forming in fire the portraits of Capt. John Smith and President Roosevelt.

The plans for the big pier called for a total of about 13,000 piles—sheet piles and round piles—considerably over a mile of sea wall, about 800,000 yards of fill and about 450,000 yards of dredging. To complete the plans over 3,500,000 feet of lumber, for either permanent or temporary use, was required. The pier is a double one, enclosing an enormous water basis of 1,280,000 square feet, but its most exceptional feature is a 150 foot reinforced concrete arch at the outer end. This arch, placed on a mud bottom relying entirely upon the bearing powers of the piles driven for its abutments, was the principal engineering feat of the whole work as it is the longest single-span bridge of the kind in this country, measuring exactly 151 feet and 5 inches from spring line to spring line. In order to place this arch over 200 piles were driven in each abutment and the concrete placed nine feet below the water line in two large cofferdams.

UMPIRE ASSAULTED.

William Evans, aged twenty four, the youngest umpire in the American League, was struck on the head at St. Louis yesterday by a bottle thrown by an enthusiastic fan. Evans was so seriously hurt that he was sent to a hospital at once, and there it is said his chances for recovery are slim. The bottle struck him on the base of the brain, fracturing the skull, and was broken into hundreds of pieces.

It was in the first game of a double-header that was being played by the St. Louis and Detroit teams. About 20,000 persons were watching the games. An altercation arose about a foul ball, and, while they were arguing, Hugo Dusenberg threw a soda water bottle and struck Evans. The wildest excitement followed.

Evans dropped at once, and lay unconscious on the ground. The spectators, seeing what had happened, made for Duesenberg, shouting, "Lynch him!" Dusenberg, realizing his position, jumped onto the field and started to run, and he was chased by several hundred of the spectators, who were seemingly bent on vengeance. There were about fifty policemen on the grounds, and they took charge of Dusenberg, and after a while managed to get him safely away from the mob.

Had Tetter for Thirty Years.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any, relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to be.—D. H. BEACH, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by W. F. Creighton & Co., and Gibson & Timberman.

FELL FROM A BALLOON.

Carrie Myers, a girl aeronaut, fell 300 feet to instant death on the Olean, N. Y., Fair Grounds Saturday afternoon.

Her shriek as she lost her hold on the trapeze bar of her parachute faintly reached the 8,000 spectators who had watched the ascent. For an instant the girl struggled to regain her balance. She clutched desperately at the ropes from which the bar dangled, missed them and pitched backward.

The girl's form stiffened as she fell and turned over several times in the air. It struck the ground with a shock which broke every bone. Women and children screamed and fainted, and the utmost efforts of the few police on the grounds were required to prevent a stampede and loss of life among the spectators.

Miss Myers' hold on the trapeze bar was broken by the sudden snapping open of the parachute with which she was attempting a 700-foot descent.

Since the fair opened she had made two ascensions daily with parachute drops. On cutting loose from the balloon Saturday afternoon the parachute failed to open quickly but dropped like a plummet for fully 400 feet. While the horrified spectators gazed breathlessly the big umbrella snapped suddenly open, checking the speed of the young woman's descent so unexpectedly that she was thrown from her seat.

A Humane Appeal.

Williams, 107 West Main St., says: "I appeal to all persons with weak lungs to take Dr. King's New Discovery, the only remedy that has helped me and fully comes up to the proprietor's recommendation." It saves more live than all other throat and lung remedies put together. Used as a cough and cold cure the world over. Pure Foods Building, Jamestown Exposition.

Stomach troubles, Heart and Kidney ailments, can be quickly corrected with a prescription known to druggists everythere as Dr. Shoop's Restorative. The prompt and surprising relief which this remedy immediately brings is entirely due to its Restorative action upon the controlling nerves of the Stomach, etc.

A weak Stomach, causing dispepsia, a weak Heart with palpitation of intermittent pulse, always means weak stomach nerves or weak Heart nerves. Strengthen these inside or controlling nerves with Dr. Shoop's Restorative and see how quickly these ailments disappear. Dr. Shoop, of Racine, Wis., will mail sample free. Write for them. A test will tell. Your health is certainly worth this simple trial. Sold by E S. Leadbeater & Sons.

KILLED BY ITALIAN.

Timothy Kelleher, a member of Troop C, of the State constabulary, was stabbed to death in Reading, Pa., late Saturday night by one of two Italians he was attempting to arrest for assaulting a young woman. The body of the officer was found on the banks of the Schuylkill river yesterday. Traces of blood showed that the body had been carried more than 200 yards to the river and thrown over a twenty-five-foot embankment.

Kelleher started for the barracks of the troop, which is across the Schuylkill river in Cumru township. He had crossed the railroad bridge over the river when he heard a woman cry, "Help!" He answered the call and came upon two Italians struggling with Bertha Bernhart. Kelleher knocked the woman's assailants aside and tried to make them prisoners when one of them turned and stabbed him with a stiletto. The girl fled, but was taken into custody and held as a witness. Several Italians have been arrested as suspects, but the assailants have not been identified.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

MONDAY EVENING, SEPT. 16, 1907.

SOME months ago Dr. Lauria, president of the "Ideal Bed Company of Chicago," made application to the City Council through the Chamber of Commerce for certain valuable property belonging to the city situated along the river front at the northern extremity and extending some blocks westwardly. Dr. Lauria was in a hurry for the city to give him an option on the property with the privilege of purchase at a nominal sum, he going to commence the operation of making hospital beds within two months, promising to erect several buildings and guaranteeing to employ many hands. Council with some misgivings on the part of several of the members who could not understand why so much land was required for the doctor's plant, finally passed the ordinance which had been agreed upon and settled itself down to await developments. And council and the people are still waiting. The time for beginning work has passed and so far as we can learn not one step has been taken toward building a plant or making a bed. It is safe to say that if an Alexandrian had made the same proposition to council as that made by Dr. Lauria, a stranger, he would have been turned down, for it has ever been the custom of the city to grant greater concessions to outsiders than it does to its own people. The city has been fooled often enough by strangers who secured valuable concessions for mere promises and the last slip-up should be a lesson long to be remembered. As a rule people who want to engage in legitimate business when they come into a community are willing to pay for what they get.

YESTERDAY was field day in Alexandria of the advocates of the anti-saloon movement, and addresses were delivered in several of the city churches. Yesterday's addresses it was intimated were preliminary to a movement which it is believed will later be made to place Alexandria in the "dry" column. The church, as has been the case on other occasions, is to be used as the battering ram against the sale of liquor, and the ministers and representative church members of Alexandria are expected to be in sympathy with the movement. The intemperate use of liquor has ever been the most difficult problem to handle in political economy. High license, local option and many other measures have from time to time been tried in attempts to regulate the liquor traffic and minimize the evils frequently incident to the sale of intoxicants. All seem to have failed, as after the trade has apparently been suppressed in one place it has broken out again in another. There is generally during the agitation of temperance more or less intemperate zeal, if not fanaticism, on the part of many well-meaning people, and this may again be the case. At least one minister yesterday advocated moderation, as will also many other conservative people in this city. The temperance wave which has for some time been on its way here had been anticipated, and now that it has arrived it is hoped that the issue will be conducted decently and in order if the matter is finally to be settled by the ballot.

MEMBERS of the House and Senate, who are visiting Washington, are urging that President Roosevelt be given a third term, and it appears that when the President gets back to the White House there will be a great revival of the third-term talk. This move will emanate from members of the House in districts where the third-term sentiment is strong and from Senators representing States that have a powerful Roosevelt following. Others of Congress than these may find it politic to talk in favor of a third term, whether they desire it or not. If the President is disposed to give encouragement to the third-term talk, as he is charged with so freely, it will probably develop this fall; if he is set against it, as his friends insist, and is bent on nominating Taft, this fact will probably be made manifest. A good many believe that the third term movement will be presented to the President before he has been in Washington any length of time in so serious a light that he will be impelled to deal with it in a further statement.

SIR THOMAS LIPTON'S challenge for the America's Cup does not surprise his friends, who have known that he has only been waiting for a fairly confident offer from a designer to improve upon the previous Shamrocks. While he has left the field open for any other challenger, he has expected to make another effort himself. Sir Thomas Lipton has enough Scottish-Irish blood to give him faith in four-leaved clovers and similar auguries, and he has not concealed his intention of calling the challenger Shamrock IV.

The vestry of St. John's Church, Hagerstown, Md., has extended a call to Rev. J. Poyntz Tyler, of Ashland, to become rector of the church. Rev. Mr. Tyler has not as yet announced his decision.

From Washington.

[Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.]

Washington, Sept. 16.

Democratic Senators now in the city almost unanimously predict that Senator Culberson, of Texas, will be selected as leader of the minority in the Senate. Such an elevation for the junior Senator from Texas would smash precedents, for Culberson is just beginning his second term, and never have the Senators selected one of so short an experience in the upper house to guide their footsteps. Senator Daniel, of Virginia and Senator Bacon, of Georgia, are both mentioned as possible selections as successor to former Senator Blackburn. Over in the House, there may be a new leader There has been some opposition to the leadership of John Sharp Williams for a year or so, and now that he has been selected to the Senate, he may be content to watch some one else carry on the battle in the House. Representative DeArmond, of Missouri, seems to have the call, although Mr. Moon, of Tennessee, and a host of others are said to be ambitions.

Peyton Gordon, of the Department of Justice, has unearthed gigantic loan frauds in New Mexico. He has just returned from a months investigating trip. It is understood that half a million acres of valuable land are involved, and suit will be begun to secure possession. Some of the land is that mixed up in the case which caused Governor Hagonman's resignation.

President Gompers, of the American Federation of Labor, announced today that the executive council of the federation would tomorrow issue an appeal to the two million laboring men enlisted in its ranks to come to the financial aid of the striking telegraphers.

Advance figures of pension Commissioner Warner's report show that 31,201 soldiers and pensioners of the civil war died during the past year. On June 30, there were 967,371 pensioners on the rolls, the smallest number for the past fifteen years. The amount disbursed for pensions was $138,155,412, a decrease of $844,876 from the preceding year. The total amount paid out for pensions on account of the civil war is now $3,369,135,449, and the amount paid on account of the war with Spain and the insurrection in the Philippine Islands $18,909,512. During the year 238,249 now claims were allowed, and 60,572 rejected.

All the diplomats representing the Central American republics at the preliminary peace Congress to meet in Washington this week, have received credentials, authorizing them to sign a protocal, looking to a treaty of peace, whereby stable government may be assured in Central America. Acting Secretary of State Adee will endeavor to hold the first conference of the dimplomats tomorrow.

The police of the harbor precinct yesterday recovered the body of Private E. H. Talbert, of the Hospital Corps. The body was found floating in the channel. It is thought that he committed suicide.

DYNAMITE EXPLOSION.

A terrific detonation blew out practically every window light in Sheboygan, Wis., and covered the people, who were attending services in the Congregational Church, with plaster from the ceiling when fourteen packages of dynamite in a warehouse there exploded yesterday, killing Lewis Ehreb, eighteen years; Bert Simmons, eighteen years old, and Clifford Simmons, seventeen years old. The three young men had been hunting several days together, and yesterday morning they left town and walked along the railroad track, shooting whatever game they saw. They reached a piece of woods about a mile from the town, and, noticing a small house, decided to shoot at it. The first bullet fired exploded the dynamite. Trees and bushes were uprooted for a distance of five rods in every direction, and a hole twenty feet across was torn in the ground where the house had stood.

SALT IN THE SUGAR BOWL.

The five-year-old son of Dr. C. R. Goodfellow, a druggist, of Vineland, N. J., filled the family sugar bowl with salt and went out to play. The first mouthful of apple dumpling his father took immediately ensued trouble in the household. To get rid of the taste the druggist swallowed some cold tea, but found that the beverage had been "sweetened" out of the same bowl. The boy grinned and said: "Pa, did I get it on you like ma did on April fool day?"

Former President Cleveland.

Princeton, N. J., Sept. 16.—Suffering severely from gout and reduced by many pounds from his former weight, ex-President Grover Cleveland nevertheless denies that he is seriously ill or that his days of hard work are over. "My weight is falling off," he said, "because the gout prevents me from exercising as I should. But reports of the seriousness of my condition are greatly exaggerated. As a matter of fact I am feeling very well, and am rapidly recovering from my attack of indigestion of last June." Mr. Cleveland seemed much perturbed that false reports of the state of his health have been circulated.

Twenty-six Killed.

Concord, N. H., Sept. 16.—The list of fatalities in yesterday's West Canaan Railroad wreck now numbers 26. The injured, divided between hospitals here, and at Boston, number 50. This probably will complete the roll of victims of New England's most disastrous railroad wreck in years.

News of the Day.

Eighty persons were killed and twenty-two were injured in ninety accidents in the Alps during the summer season.

Thirty-four balloons left Brussels yesterday in a race organized by the Belgian Aeronautic Club. One hundred thousand persons watched the start.

Representative Theodore Burton, republican nominee for mayor of Cleveland, announced that he would accept no campaign contribution from any public service corporation.

Woodstock College, the philosophical and theological training school for the Jesuit scholastics, which has been located at Woodstock, near Baltimore, since 1869, is soon to be moved to New York city and made a part of the university at Fordham.

Rev. W. A. Guerry was yesterday consecrated bishop coadjutor of the Episcopal Diocese of South Carolina, the services taking place in Trinity Church, Columbia, S. C., in the presence of a distinguished gathering representing all sections of the State.

Meat prices soared today in Chicago to the tune of a storm of protest at all the wholesale supply houses. In some places the protest assumed the proportions of tumult, but in none did it result in any decrease in prices. The advance is horizontal on all grades of meat.

Ex-President Grover Cleveland went for a short drive at Princeton, N. J., yesterday afternoon. He was accompanied by a trained nurse, who has been in attendance on him for some time. Mr. Cleveland only sees a few very intimate friends, and these on rare occasions. His health is by no means good.

The iron giders of the bridges that will carry 10th and 11th streets over the depressed railway tracks of the Washington Southern Railway Company on Maryland avenue, Washington, are being placed in position, but it will require several weeks more work before the bridges are completed and thrown open to public service.

Two midshipmen at the Annapolis Naval Academy, James S. Spore, of West Bay City, Mich., and Solomon Endel, of Lake Charles, La., had a fist fight over a private quarrel recently and Spore was injured so badly that he had to be sent to the hospital. The fight originated in a taunt directed against Endel, who is a Hebrew.

A secret meeting of the New York striking telegraphers was held yesterday, at which reports were received from the telegraphers who had struck in the various offices. This was on account of a feeling that had arisen that the crisis in the strike will come this week, and the circulation of rumors that today the strikers may stampede back to work.

The increasing indignation of the masses against the escape from the guillotine of Soleillant, known as the "monstrous violator and murderer," whose sentence to death for the atrocious murder of a 12 year-old girl, was committed last week by President Fallieres of France to life imprisonment, was expressed in Paris yesterday in a series of the most curious public manifestations that have occurred in France for a long time. The demonstration, despite the fact that several arrests were made, was almost entirely an orderly one. Many woman participated.

A mob, bent on lynching a nonunion mill worker, who had shot some nuion men in Pittsburg, Pa., yesterday morning, got a rope around the neck of a plain clothes detective by mistake, and had him half stung to a telegraph post before the mistake was discovered. It was but an incident of a very bloody battle between union and nonunion forces at the Forty-fifth street mills. John Anderson, a nonunion ironworker, with a gang of friends, got into a fight with a party of union glass workers, headed by John Manning. There was some shooting, and Manning was perhaps fatally wounded. He is at a hospital, and Anderson is in jail to await the result of his injuries.

It is again rumored that Baron Von Sternburg is soon to retire as German ambassador to the United States, because of a malignant disease with which he has long suffered.

FEARFUL ACCIDENT.

A dispatch from White River Junction, Vt., says a fearful head-on collision between the southbound Quebec express and a northbound freight train on the Concord division of the Boston and Maine Railroad occurred four miles north of Canaan Station early yesterday, due to a mistake in train dispatcher's orders, and from a demolished passenger coach there were taken out 24 dead and dying and 27 other passengers, most of them seriously wounded. Nearly all those who were in the death car were returning from a fair at Sherbrooke, Quebec, 160 miles north.

The conductor of the freight train was given to understand by the night operator at Canaan Station that he had plenty of time to reach a siding, receiving, according to the superintendent of the division, a copy of a telegraph order from the train dispatcher at Concord which confused the trains Nos. 30 and 34.

The wreck occurred just after the express had rounded into a straight stretch of track, but owing to the early morning mist neither engineer saw the other's headlight until it was too late.

STREET PREACHERS BEATEN.

Angered by a speech against the Catholic Church and by the announcement of a lecture, alleged to be an expose of immorality among the clergy, several hundred men in East St. Louis Saturday attacked two street preachers, members of the "Band of Holiness," beat and bruised them and even pummeled the policemen who came to their rescue.

The policemen had great difficulty in taking the two men to jail for safety. Several policmen were bruised with fists and canes. Three women members of the preachers corps escaped injury.

L. J. King, who says he was once a priest, and his wife, an alleged former nun, were announced as the speakers for Monday night, and no sooner was the subject named than the crowd made a rush for King and his assistant. There were no arrests.

Virginia News.

Rev. B. B. White, 51 years old, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church South, at Mount Jackson, died Saturday night at his home there of typhoid fever.

News has been received of the death on Thursday in Hamilton, of Mrs. Sarah E. Chamblin, widow of Peyton W. Chamblin, of Loudoun county, aged eighty years.

Fire on Saturday destroyed the canning factory of V. B. Hardwick, at Acorn, Westmoreland county, entailing a loss on building, machinery and canned goods to the amount of $8,000.

The big lumber manufacturing plant and extensive yards of the Frank K. Hitch Lumber Company, located at Pinners Point, opposite Norfolk, was damaged by fire to the extent of $50,000 yesterday evening.

At a late hour Friday night during the session of the regular quarterly conference at the Oak Street Methodist Church, colored, in Petersburg, the pastor, Rev. J. A. Robins, was assaulted with a club in a free fight in which several others were more or less hurt.

Mrs. C. G. Mitchell, daughter of Mr. William Shotwell, of Culpeper, died Saturday while at the hospital in Richmond. She had been married only three months when the disease for which she was operated on developed its alarming symptons. She was one of the popular young ladies of Culpeper.

Mrs. Ida Wooldridge, of Richmond, was Saturday sentenced to 15 days in jail for defrauding the Virginia Passenger and Power Company to the extent of $10. Mrs. Wooldridge went to the offices of the company, displayed a bruised eye and other marks, saying she had received them in a street car accident. This proved to be untrue.

The William Benton farm, at Leithton, near Middleburg, belonging to the estate of the late Joshua Hatcher, has been sold to Daniel B. Sands, of New York city. The farm contains 485 acres and the consideration was $27,000. It will be converted into a stock farm. Jasper C. Dawson has sold his farm of 250 acres, near Sterling, Loudoun county, to James Tharp. The consideration was $5,000.

Frank P. Burke, in charge of station B branch postoffice, Richmond, was arrested Saturday on a charge of rifling the mails. A decoy letter was placed in the mails by an inspector and when Burke was arrested the letter is said to have been found in his possession. He was bailed in the sum of one thousand dollars for his appearance before the United States court. He has been in the postoffice for fifteen years and was prominent in local politics.

The feature of this year's session at Richmond of the Virginia organization of Patriotic Sons of America was the unanimous adoption of resolutions looking to the purchase and preservation of Stratford, the home of the Lees, in Westmoreland county, Virginia. Five sons of the house, beginning with "Light Horse Harry" and ending with Robert E. Lee, are named in the preamble. The organization proposes to make Stratford a national shrine second only to Mount Vernon, which is only a few miles farther up the Potomac, nearer Washington.

Wholesale arrests of conductors of the Norfolk and Portsmouth Traction Company on charges of larceny of sums ranging from a dollar to thirty dollars a day have been made. One of the four men convicted at county hearings Saturday night confessed to knocking down $30, the total receipts of a crowded exposition car for a day's run. Pinkertons have discovered that in some cases collusion exists between the conductors and the uniformed inspectors of railway companies, whereby both have profited. The main body of the conductors have expressed their determination to stand by the company in its efforts to stamp out stealing. Jail sentences were imposed on all the men arrested.

DUG HIS OWN GRAVE.

John Woomer, the aged stonemason who several years ago came into notoriety by digging his own grave in Mount Hebron, Winchester, and afterwards walling it up preparatory to his death, was stricken on the street with paralysis Saturday and is in a critical condition. Mr. Woomer is nearly 80 years old and is not expected to live. He has requested that, in the event of his death, he be buried in the grave dug by his own hands, and relatives will carry out the old man's wish if the present attack proves fatal. Woomer has also arranged to have a marble tombstone cut and engraved for his last resting place.

LETTER TO WM L CLARK

Alexandria, Virginia.

Dear Sir: There are two sorts of paint; one to sell and make money, the other to paint and save money.

Who gets the money? The maker, the seller, the painter.

Where does it come from? The owner, of course; he pays the painter for doing the work, and the dealer for gallons of paint; and he pays the paint-manufacturer, gallons again; more gallons, more money all round; for the owner to pay to the painter dealer and paint-manufacturer.

What's the paint that saves money? Gallons again; less gallons, less money for paint, less money for wages; a gallon of paint is $5 for wages and paint. Less gallons, less money to pay, $5 a gallon.

Two sorts of paint; less gallons and more; less money and more; $5 a gallon difference; two to one in gallons and money.

It costs twice as much to paint the average more-gallons paint as to paint Devoe. When the people find out, it may not be quite so easy to sell extravagant paint by calling it "cheap."

Yours truly,
51 " F W DEVOE & Co.

Pope Issues Encyclical.

Rome, Sept. 16.—Alarmed by the spread of extreme liberalism even among the Roman Catholic clergy, Pope Pius has issued an encyclical in condemnation of "modernism" today bitterly attacking the ideas of the new theology. He said: "Modernism is a peril for the church. Its reforms in faith, philosophy, theology and history are all errors and drive those who believe in them to atheism. Boundless curiosity, pride of individualism and disregard of true Catholic knowledge and discipline actually have spread modernism among the clergy." The encyclical decrees that philosophy and theology hereafter must be taught in the Catholic schools and universities in the complete spirit of the Catholic Church and in accordance with the rules of the church. It is decreed that all teachers embued with the spirit of modernism must be dismissed and bishops must compel the clergy and the faithful to abstain from reading papers inspired by the spirit of modernism or advocating the new theories. A board of censors is to be established in every bishopric to revise and edit all Catholic publications. The eccelsiastics are forbidden to send papers through the mail or otherwise directing them without the consent of the bishop. Clerical congresses are forbidden except in cases when dangers of modernism and laicism arise. A board of supervision is to be formed in every diocese to prevent the spread of "new errors." All bishops are instructed that they must forward to the Pope individual reports regarding the matters covered in the encyclical.

Fight on Elevated Train.

Chicago, Sept. 16.—In a frenzy of fear George Wong, a Chinese, with a long-bladed knife, slashed his way through an elevated train crowded with theatre patrons early today. John Grant was left lying on the floor, bleeding to death from a gash across his abdomen, and Edward Wall, Jos. Sepoe and three others fled with slight wounds. Wong was attacked by a member of Grant's party, most of whom were intoxicated. The Chinaman offered no defense at first, and the hoodlum showered blows on him. After stabbing Grant, Wong fled from one coach to another pursued by the rowdies, who assaulted other passengers and terrorized the entire train. The police followed the train three blocks in a patrol wagon. When it stopped Wong passed the police unnoticed. They pursued him and fired a dozen shots before he was captured. Only by clubbing Wong's assailants did the police prevent them from mobbing the trembling Chinaman.

Saved Young Woman.

Dover, Sept. 16.—Had not Jabez Wolffe, the English aquatic marvel, been just starting to swim the channel today Miss Lillian Edwards, of Ohio, would have been drowned. To Wolffe the young woman's rescue from a watery grave a mile off Dover was a mere incident of his swim. Lifting her into a boat which had hurried to the spot he turned again toward the French coast and splashed ahead without waiting for thanks and with scarcely a comment on his feat as a life-saver. Miss Edwards, a member of the "Buck Eye Daisies" party on a tour of Europe, was bathing in the channel. Seized with cramps a mile from shore she called vainly for help to friends, none of whom were near enough to help her. Wolffe, just starting his long swim, heard her, swan to the spot and supported her until a boat reached them and took her aboard.

Buried Alive in Quicksand.

St. Louis, Mo., Sept. 16.—Within sight of friends and relatives, whose efforts to save them were in vain, Harry W. Brenner and Henry O'Brien, jr., were victims of quick sand in Smith's Bay in St. Louis, and an attempt to recover the bodies is being made today. The two men had been swimming and in leaving the water they attempted to reach shore by walking on the sand. Suddenly they began to sink. They screamed for help and several men tried to save them, but Brenner and O'Brien sank and disappeared.

Expelled from German Soil.

Berlin, Sept. 16.—Gen. Cardot, of the French army, was expelled from German soil today for watching the military manoeuvers without official permission. It is not clear whether the neglect to seek authority for the general to attend the war game was the result of an oversight or if it was intended by the French government that he should make a less formal and prehaps a closer inspection of the manoeuvers than is regularly accredited military representatives of foreign powers. His expulsion threatens an unpleasant incident.

Girls Rescued.

Brooklyn, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Three hundred girls employed by Cohen Brothers, trousers manufacturers, were rescued at noon today from a fire which practically destroyed the building and spread to adjoining tenements. In the panic that followed the alarm, scores of girls were trampled and their clothing torn. Escape by the stairs being cut off those on the upper floors were either carried out by firemen or policemen, or saved by jumping into life nets.

Peace Predicted in Morocco.

Paris, Sept. 16.—An early return of peace in Morocco is predicted by Premier Clemeceau as a sequel to the dispatch of delegates from two of the hostile native tribes to General Drude, commander of the French forces in the field.

News of the natives' movement for a cessation of hostilities rests on official messages from the general and it is believed the conference is now in progress.

Killed in Automobile Accident.

Cumberland, Md., Sept. 16.—Jumping from an automobile, which had gotten beyond control, James A. Sharpless, one of the wealthiest citizens of Keyser, plunged down a steep mountain side near here today and was so seriously injured that he died three hours later.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Sept. 16.—Important street operators took and open aggressive position on the market this morning and brokers representing them were active buyers all around the room. A drive was made at steel preferred and large blocks at the same time were thrown on the market by local operators. Rail road and other bonds were irregular. After the first hour the market shaded off moderately on a cessation of the aggressive buying.

KILLED BY A HORSE.

C. Berry Winship, of Georgetown, was killed by his saddled horse, which either kicked or trampled upon him and fractured his skull yesterday morning on a bridle path near Bowlder Bridge, in Rock Creek Park.

Mr. Winship was horseback riding with two campanions, but they separated from him at a crossing reached shortly before the accident. Later, they were startled when they saw his riderless horse dashing toward the point where he was to have rejoined them. They turned into the path taken by Mr. Winship and found him lying in the path with blood flowing from a deep wound near the base of the skull.

A passing automobile was pressed into service to take the young man to Garfield Hospital, but when he reached that institution he was pronounced to be dead. An examination showed the imprint of the horse's hoof at the base of the skull.

The unfortunate young man was the son of the late Henry C. Winship, for years identified with the interests of the Consolidation Coal Company, and Mrs. Alice V. Winship, daughter of the late C. C. Berry, of Alexandria. He was twenty-one years old. He was employed at the Washington Gas Light Company.

Young Winship reached his majority about three weeks ago, and at that time came into a fortune, left him under the terms of his father's will.

There was unintentional prophecy in the words of young Winship yesterday morning, when as he left his home attired in a riding costume He said: "Well, you want to prepare for a funeral as this is all new business to me."

FUNERALS.

The funeral of the late Thomas D. Dix, whose death occurred at the Alexandria Hospital Thursday night from injuries received at the Potomac freight yards last Monday took place from the residence, 321 north Pitt street, yesterday afternoon. The services were conducted by Rev. W. W. Van Arsdale, pastor of Trinity Methodist Episcopal Church. The funeral was attended by James W. Jackson Council, Junior Order of United American Mechanics, of which Mr. Dix was a member. The pallbearers were James Greenwood, B. F. Simpson, M. McKennedy, William Desmond, Frederick Kaus, jr., and Joseph Padgett. The interment was in the Methodist Protestant cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Louise Robinson took place yesterday afternoon from the residence of her husband, Mr. Harry Robinson, 338 south Patrick street. The services were conducted by Rev. Edgar Carpenter, rector of Grace Church, and the interment was in the Methodist Protestant cemetery.

COLLIDED WITH CATTLE TRAIN

There was a rear-end collision between a southbound Chesapeake and Ohio engine and a Southern Railway cattle train at the Potomac railroad yards at an early hour yesterday morning, 31 sheep and 3 steers were killed. It is stated that at the time of the collision a fog prevailed. The sheep were killed outright, as were two of the steers. The third steer was injured so badly that it was afterwards killed by some of the railroad company's employees. Three freight cars were damaged to such an extent that they were afterward burned by the railroad company's employees. The caboose of the freight train was also badly damaged. The colliding engine had its pilot and tender considerable damaged as a result of the accident. Some of the sheep strayed away after the accident, and one was found in this city by the police.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

There were but cases before the Police Court this morning.

James Kelly was arrested Saturday night on upper King street by Officers Beach and Henderson for disorderly conduct. It was difficult to ascertain whether he was drunk or demented. He had evidently been drinking, however, and he was locked up. This morning he was sent out of the city.

Officer Beach yesterday afternoon took a colored boy named Kenneth Richards in custody for discharging a rifle in the street. The boy was on Fayette street, between Cameron and Queen, shooting at birds. The weapon, which carries a long cartridge of .22 calibre, was captured. The boy was brought into court this morning when he was fined $5 and the rifle was confiscated.

OPERA HOUSE TONIGHT.

Clarence Bennett and his large company will tonight present the biblical drama, "The Holy City," in four acts and eleven scenes. Mr. Bennett will portray the difficult role of John the Baptist, a part for which he is perfectly capable, while the character of Salome will be in the hands of Miss Edna Marshall. Some of the principal scenes will be the throne room in Herodis palace, the crucifixion and the resurrection and the flight of the angels. The company has fourteen people in the cast and carries its own scenery. The drama will undoubtedly be one of the best attractions of the season.

SUICIDE OF A SOLDIDR.

The body of Private E. H. Talbert, of the Hospital Corps, stationed at Washington Barracks, who was reported missing several days ago, was found floating in the river at Washington yesterday afternoon. It is said that Talbert had made several previous attempts to end his life. He jumped into the river on two occasions and was rescued each time by the soldiers at the barracks. A third attempt at suicide occurred three weeks ago, when the man tried to leap from a row boat in which he was seated. He was a native of Lowell, Mass.

While walking along Pennsylvania avenue near 13th street, Washington, Saturday afternoon, Brooke R. Adams, of Alexandria, was taken suddenly ill and fell headlong to the sidewalk. His face was severely cut by the fall and he was removed to the Emergency Hospital.

AGAINST SALOONS.

THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE IN THE CHURCHES OF ALEXANDRIA YESTERDAY. THE FOUNDER OF THE LEAGUE, DR. RUSSELL, AND OTHER SPEAKERS REPORT THE PROGRESS OF THE WORK. NATIONAL CONVENTION AT NORFOLK THIS WEEK.

The National Convention of the Anti-Saloon League of America will be held this week at Norfolk. Besides the other delegates of the church and temperance bodies, about 75 of the superintendents and field workers of the league will be present. These men have during the past week held at Norfolk their annual Conference of Methods. On Sunday, as is the custom, they filled various pulpits in the State. About 150 different services were held by them. Among other places a field day was held in the churches of Alexandria. The pulpits were filled by Rev. Marna S. Poulson, son of Rev. Dr. Poulson, who was several years ago the pastor of Trinity M. E. Church, and Rev. H. H. Barstow, district superintendent of the Rochester district of the New York State Anti-Saloon League. Rev. Howard H. Russel, State superintendent of New York, the founder of the movement in Ohio in 1893, whence the league has spread throughout the whole country, was the speaker at the Washington street M. E. Church South in the morning, and at Grace Episcopal Church in the evening. His father is a graduate of the Alexandria seminary and his first pastorate was in King George county. Dr. Russell's addresses were enjoyed by both congregations. At the evening service at Grace Church among other things Dr. Russell said:

"At Woodstock in this State at the opening of the Revolutionary war, the pastor of the village church one Sunday morning, after an appeal for liberty, threw off his pulpit gown and appeared in the full uniform of a Continental captain. He enrolled his men and as captain and chaplain led them to the battles and final victory. So today our pastors are everywhere leading their congregations out into conflict against a more dangerous foe the beverage liquor traffic.

"Assuming you will agree without discussion that the saloon is an evil; that we must organize the forces of righteousness against it and that the church should lead in that organization, I am to tell you of the church federation now formed for that purpose and some of its recent victories.

"The Anti-Saloon League eliminates political partnership and enlists all who oppose the evils of the saloon regardless of their party preferences or creed relations, and the league builds the public sentiment as rapidly as possible and directs that sentiment toward the support of public officers who will enact and enforce the needed legislation.

"Great progress is being made everywhere by the work of the league. In Ohio more than 3,000 saloons have been closed. In Kentucky one hundred counties are free from the saloon. In Tennessee liquor is legally sold as a beverage in four places. Georgia has lately adopted the policy of State prohibition. The south is now taking the lead in the extermination of the traffic, and ere long the whole southland will be set free from this iniquity. In the north good progress is being made, while at the national capital the improved public sentiment is being represented by democratic members of Congress from the south and republicans from the north, and valuable restrictive legislation is thus being obtained by the interpartisan method of activity. It is safe to predict that before many years the recent decision of Judge Artinan, of Indiana, holding that the State has no right to license the saloon, will be the law of the whole nation. God speed the day!"

Rev. M. S. Poulson, assistant superintendent of the American League, delivered an address in Trinity M. E. Church yesterday morning. He is a son of Rev. Thomas L. Poulson, who about a quarter of a centry ago was pastor of that church. Among other things the speaker said:

"It is a moral crime to engage in the sale of intoxicating liquor. The saloon must go because it defies all of the sacred principles of true manhood, it destroys peace, defiles our morals, imperils our cities, plunders our homes, and murders with a degree of ferocity unparalleled by any other crime. The Anti-Saloon League is the church in action against the saloon, and it is the representative of federated churches of all creeds for common action against this gigantic evil."

Rev. H. H. Barstow, of Rochester, N. Y., spoke in the Baptist Church in the morning and in the M. P. Church at night. His remarks were on the same lines as those of the other speakers.

References to the anti-saloon movement were made in nearly all the churches of the city yesterday. In at least one of them the minister advised moderation on the part of his hearers, and called attention to the fact that often advocates of the cause of temperance are unfortunately intemperate in many other things.

BROKE UP HOUSEKEEPING.

A man living on Jefferson street, between Washington and Columbus, caused some excitement in that neighborhood yesterday by demolishing nearly everything in his home. He entered his house and upbraided his wife because his dinner was not ready. When his betterhalf told him she was doing the best she could, and if he did not like the speed at which she was moving he had better prepare the meal himself, he picked up the dinner pot and threw it into the street. The husband then procured an axe and demolished the stove, and later going from room to room on the first floor he broke every piece of furniture he found. His fury not being appeased, the man proceeded to the upper rooms and, still armed with the axe, destroyed all the bed room furniture and threw the pieces into the street. The wife had in the meantime gone in search of a policeman, but before her return her husband had started on foot for Washington.

Arrangements have been completed for a race next Saturday afternoon between the motor boats belonging to Messrs. William Moore and Bruce Emerson, of this city. The race, it is said, will be from River View to the Prince street dock, in this city, and the successful contestant will receive $50.

The Stale Bread of Hungary.

In Hungary they do not eat fresh bread. Whether it is because the Hungarians believe in hygiene more than their American or European brothers and sisters or not has never been told, but the Magyar is partial to stale bread, and the staler the better. His "rosskenyer," or ordinary black bread, as it is eaten by the very large majority of the Magyar population, is carefully laid away on a shelf and dug out for consumption months and months after it has come out of the great ovens. If the huge loaf, weighing something like five pounds and for which the Hungarian pays 6 or 7 kreutzer, equivalent to about 3 or 4 cents in American money, has carefully been hidden away for two years, it is considered all the better. The Hungarian never thinks of where the bread is to come from tomorrow. He thinks of where it is to come from next year, for he has at least a year's supply on the shelves. The Hungarian bakes her bread 365 days ahead of time. Her Wednesday baking is for the Wednesday of a year to come; her Thursday baking for the Thursday of a year to come.

To Cut the Night In Two.

Professor Victor Hallopeau, member of the Paris Academy of Medicine, says:

The true secret of long continued, valuable brain work is to cut the night in two. The scholar, the inventor, the financier, the literary creator, should be asleep every night by 10 o'clock, to wake again at, say, 2 in the morning. Three hours' work, from 2 to 5, in the absolute tranquillity of the silent hours should mean the revealing of new powers, new possibilities, a wealth of ideas undreamed of under the prevailing system.

From 5 to 8 or 8:30 sleep again. Taking up then the day's work, the brain will be still saturated with the mental fruits of the midnight vigil; there will be no effort in putting into practice or carrying further what was planned or begun those few hours before.

The habit may be hard to acquire, but mechanical means of waking at first will induce the predisposition.—New York World.

The Military Death Sentence.

"You know how a soldier traitor is put to death," said the colonel. "The traitor stands blindfolded, and half a dozen privates shoot at him simultaneously. But perhaps you don't know that each of those privates, though he take the most careful aim, may afterward say without fear of contradiction that the traitor's blood does not stain his hands. This is the reason: Two of the rifles for this ghastly shooting are always loaded with blank cartridges. Then they are shuffled, and no one knows which the harmless ones are. The executioners draw, and each is as like as not to draw a harmless gun. So when they shoot they can solace themselves with the thought that maybe they are only shooting a blank cartridge at the poor blindfolded wretch before them."

Hans Breitmann's Philosophy.

I have found that if we resolve to be vigorous of body and mind, calm, collected, cheerful, etc., we can effect marvels, for it is certainly true that after awhile the spirit or will does haunt us unconsciously and marvelously. I have, I believe, half changed my nature under this discipline. I will continually to be free from folly, envy, irritability and vanity, to forgive and forget, and I have found, by willing and often recurring to it, that, while far from being exempt from fault, I have eliminated a vast mass of it from my mind. It is certainly true, as Kant wrote to Hufeland, many diseases can be cured by resolving them away. He thought the gout could be.—Letters of Charles Godfrey Leland.

Time to Change.

It was at a table d'hote dinner at a hill station in India that a very young officer just up from the plains found himself seated next to a lady whom he took for one of the grass widows common in those parts. He made himself agreeable, but his neighbor seemed a good deal out of spirits, so he said sympathetically:

"I suppose you can't help thinking of your poor husband grilling down below?"

But the lady was a real widow, and when he learned that he changed his seat.—London Answers.

Sparing the Smashee.

"I told you," said the merchant, "to mark this box 'Handle With Care.' What's this nonsense you've painted here?"

"That," said the college graduate, "is the Latin for 'Handle With Care.'"

"How do you expect a baggageman to understand that?"

"He won't and therefore he won't get mad and smash the box."—Philadelphia Press.

Attack of Diarrhoea Cured by One Dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—R. G. Stewart, of the firm of Stewart & Bro., Greenville, Ala. For sale by W. F. Creighton & Co. and Gibson & Timberman.

Health in the Canal Zone.

The high wages paid makes it a mighty temptation to our young artisans to join the force of skilled workmen needed to construct the Panama Canal. Many are restrained however by the fear of fevers and malaria. It is the knowing ones—those who have used Electric Bitters, who go there without this fear, well knowing they are safe from malarious influence with Electric Bitters on hand. Cures blood poison too, billiousness, weakness and all stomach, liver and kidney troubles. Guaranteed at E. S. Leadbeater & Son's drug store. 50c.
